Senior Auditor for Special Projects

About the Position:

This position is responsible for conducting investigations resulting from internal and external allegations of fraud, waste, and abuse; consulting and advisory reviews; and other special projects. The incumbent is responsible for conducting all aspects of a project including intake, planning, fieldwork, and communicating results. This is a hands-on position that interfaces with the most senior levels of management. In performing consulting and advisory reviews, the incumbent must have the ability to plan, conduct, and/or direct engagements that will support the university’s strategic alignment.

For a full description of the position and requirements, and to apply, please go to www.jobs.vt.edu. Review of applications will begin on August 16, 2021, and will continue until the position is filled.

About the University:

Dedicated to its motto, Ut Prosim (That I May Serve), Virginia Tech is a comprehensive land-grant institution that enhances the quality of life in Virginia and throughout the world. Virginia Tech is an inclusive community dedicated to knowledge, discovery, and creativity.

The university offers more than 280 majors to a diverse enrollment of more than 36,000 undergraduate, graduate, and professional students. The university has a significant presence across Virginia, including the Innovation Campus in Northern Virginia; the Health Sciences and Technology Campus in Roanoke; sites in Newport News and Richmond; and numerous Extension offices and research centers. A leading global research institution, Virginia Tech conducts more than $500 million in research annually.

About Blacksburg:

Blacksburg, some 12,000 acres nestled in a plateau between the Blue Ridge and Alleghany mountains, is special. Home to about 42,600 local residents, the town is considered small, but don’t let its size or location fool you. Because of its award-winning services, reasonable cost of living, safety, moderate climate, and abundant leisure activities, Blacksburg is consistently ranked among the country’s best places to live and has earned a reputation nationwide as a well-managed, stable, and forward-looking community.
